Re: Edwards Lifesciences AG, et al. v. CoreValve, Inc.
C.A. No. 08-91 (GMS)

Dear Chief Judge Sleet:

Plaintiffs join in defendant's request for oral argument on its motion to transfer this action to the Central District of California. We would also be prepared to discuss that motion as part of a scheduling conference. Plaintiffs would like to move this case forward, and to have a schedule set. The defendant has argued that one reason this case should be transferred is that the California Court would be likely to resolve this case more quickly than this Court will. Thus, it appears that the defendant also wants to have a schedule set that will lead to a prompt resolution.

Respectfully,

Jack B. Blumenfeld
